“IDENTITY CRISIS”

(Luke 19:1-10)

Who are you? What does it mean to be who you are? Identity relates to our basic values that dictate the choices we make. These choices reflect who we are and what we value. There is an endless amount of values that we can allow to determine our identity, but these values may not be aligned with how God defines us which creates an unfulfilling life.

You are _____ by Christ and He longs for you to _____ _____ and discover your identity _____.

Isaiah 43:1, Psalm 139:1-6

Your identity in Christ releases you from being _____
_____.

1 John 1:9, Ephesians 4:20-24

Your identity in Christ gives you permission to stop looking to _____ _____ and focus your life on living for an _____.

Galatians 1:10, Colossians 3:23-24

There is an endless amount of values that we can allow to determine our identity, but these values may not be aligned with how God defines us which creates an unfulfilling life.

You are KNOWN by Christ and He longs for you to KNOW HIM and discover your identity IN HIM.

Isaiah 43:1, Psalm 139:1-6

Your identity in Christ releases you from being STUCK IN YOUR PAST.

1 John 1:9, Ephesians 4:20-24

Your identity in Christ gives you permission to stop looking to CULTURE FOR VALIDATION and focus your life on living for an AUDIENCE OF ONE.

Galatians 1:10, Colossians 3:23-24

“THE AMERICAN IDOL”

(Matthew 22:15-22)

Not-So-Breaking News: our country is divided...especially politically. Everyone is so quick to defend “their side” that we often forget that, as Christians, we can’t let political party come before our call to follow Christ. If we are not careful, our politics and our political parties can become our idols.

We are God’s image bearers

Genesis 1:27, 1 Peter 2:9-10, Psalm 24:1

Faith in Christ should inform your politics

Philippians 3:20, Philippians 2:13, Psalm 143:10

Faith in Christ should lead to action

John 13:34-35, James 1:19, Romans 12:9-13

The goal is unity for the gospel

John 17:21, Luke 19:10, Philippians 1:27
