
❖ SERMON NOTES ❖

Sunday, August 11, 2013

“FULLY DEVOTED”

(Daniel 3:1-18)

Today we explore the first half of the story of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. They were called on to worship the king and in doing so, violate their commitments to the Lord God. The cost of being true to God would be death in a fiery furnace. What does our devotion look like when devotion to God costs us something?