
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, November 20, 2011

“LEAVING MARGIN FOR GOD”

(Luke 10:38-42)

Most Christians want God to speak His wisdom, direction and truth into their lives. The problem for many Christians is that their lives are so busy and cram packed, there is no margin for God to do so. Today we will take a look at the story of Mary to see if we too need to create some margin for God to speak into our lives.

The story of Martha:

- a. Martha _____ Jesus into her house.
- b. Jesus begins teaching...Martha uses the time to prepare the meal, Mary sits and listens at the feet of Jesus.
- c. Martha gets _____ about having to do all the preparations without her sister’s help and wants Jesus to tell Mary to help her.
- d. Jesus warns Martha that she has _____ and too worried about it all...so much that she is missing a God moment to accomplish a good thing.

Martha’s life page:

- a. If Martha’s life was represented as words on a notebook page, there would be _____.
- b. _____ vs. _____ vs. _____
- c. Though God was in the room, she gave Him _____ to speak into her life.

Our life page:

- a. We can get our lives so full and busy that God has _____ into our lives.
- b. _____...both corporately and individually is to stop and allow God to speak into our lives.

How to create margin so our living becomes a life of worship that God has plenty of opportunity to speak into:

_____.

Begin with _____.

Take an _____ at all you are doing...
_____ to the feet of Jesus.

With _____, begin to create margin.