“FORGOTTEN CHRISTMAS”

(Luke 10:25-37)

This season between Thanksgiving and Christmas is a time to focus on our blessings from God and sharing those blessings with others in Jesus’ name. May our love for Christ turn our hearts outward to the world around us. Visit: ForgottenChristmas.org

“In everything give thanks; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus” (1 Thessalonians 5:18, NASB).

“And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. As the Scriptures say, ‘They share freely and give generously to the poor. Their good deeds will be remembered forever.’” (2 Corinthians 9:8-9, NLT).

“But someone will say, ‘You have faith; I have deeds.’ Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do” (James 2:18, NIV).

“Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to him, ‘Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed,’ but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead” (James 2:15-17, NIV).

“Remember, it is sin to know what you ought to do and then not do it” (James 4:17, NLT).
