"OUTSIDE THE BOX"
(Mark 16:15)

When you say the word "evangelism" in church, several people cringe or run the other way. Why is that? Why is evangelism a scary word to some people? Today we're going to look at a conversation that Jesus had with Nicodemus that will serve as a model for us as we take another look at sharing the Good News.

"And then he told them, 'Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone'" (Mark 16:15, NLT).

Let's clear something up…
Sharing your faith is an _____ of _____ Christ followers.

Sharing your faith is not…

1. A _____.

2. An exercise in _____.

3. Having _____.

4. Just _____ job.

5. Trying to _____ become a believer.

What did Jesus do?

Nicodemus was curious…Jesus was _____ (John 3:2).

Nicodemus knew the rules…Jesus introduced him to _____ (John 3:1, 16-17).

Nicodemus was stuck in logic…Jesus talked about _____ (John 3:3-4).

Outside the Box
We need to see evangelism as a _____ and not a _____.

Let's clear something up…
Sharing your faith is an expectation of all Christ followers.

Sharing your faith is not…

1. A debate.

2. An exercise in Bible memorization.

3. Having all the answers.

4. Just certain people's job.

5. Trying to make them become a believer.

What did Jesus do?

Nicodemus was curious…Jesus was available (John 3:2).

Nicodemus knew the rules…Jesus introduced him to relationship (John 3:1, 16-17).

Nicodemus was stuck in logic…Jesus talked about faith (John 3:3-4).

Outside the Box
We need to see evangelism as a conversation and not a confrontation.
