

---

---

❖SERMON NOTES ❖

---

---

Sunday, July 23, 2017

“IN HIS STEPS”

(1 Peter 2:19-24)

As Christians we are not “trailblazers,” we are Christ followers. God does not want us to make our own paths or go our own way. He wants us to follow Jesus. We must go where He has called us to go. That means we walk where He walks, careful to make sure we are following in His steps, no matter where they lead.

Walking in His steps means never letting _____
_____ (v.20)

John 6:38; Acts 5:27-29; 2 Corinthians 4:8

Walking in His steps means Jesus has _____
_____ (v.21)

Matthew 20:28; Philippians 2:5-8; John 13:13-15

Walking in His steps means our focus is on _____
_____ (v.24)

Hebrews 12:1-2; Romans 5:3-4; 2 Corinthians 4:17

---

---

❖SERMON NOTES❖

---

---

Sunday, July 23, 2017

“IN HIS STEPS”

(1 Peter 2:19-24)

As Christians we are not “trailblazers,” we are Christ followers. God does not want us to make our own paths or go our own way. He wants us to follow Jesus. We must go where He has called us to go. That means we walk where He walks, careful to make sure we are following in His steps, no matter where they lead.

Walking in His steps means never letting circumstances dictate obedience. (v.20)

John 6:38; Acts 5:27-29; 2 Corinthians 4:8

Walking in His steps means Jesus has already gone first. (v.21)

Matthew 20:28; Philippians 2:5-8; John 13:13-15

Walking in His steps means our focus is on where we are going and not just where we are. (v.24)

Hebrews 12:1-2; Romans 5:3-4; 2 Corinthians 4:17