“CLEANING HOUSE”

(John 2:13-19)

Our picture of Jesus is often one who is loving, kind, compassionate, and caring. Those are accurate descriptions, but they are not all we see of Jesus in the gospels. Jesus didn't shy away from confrontation, especially when it came to things that hindered or distracted people from His father.

Jesus' anger is directed towards attitudes and actions that have no place in His Father's house.

There's no place for “business as usual”– Jesus is confrontational.
Matthew 23:1-4; Luke 5:29-32; Matthew 5:27-30

There's no place for “convenience and comfort”– Jesus calls us to die to ourselves.

Luke 9:23; Galatians 5:24; Romans 6:12-13

There's no place for “empty worship”– Jesus wants your relationship, not your religion.

Matthew 15:7-9; Luke 7:14-15; Hosea 6:6

Question: What are the attitudes and actions that have no place in the life God has given you?
