“SELFLESS”

(John 13:1-15; 31-35)

The ultimate act of love, sacrifice, and humility was Jesus willingly going to the cross to die for our sins. But before He went to the cross, the night before he was arrested, He gave another example of love, sacrifice, and humility when He washed the disciples’ feet. All the power in the universe belonged to Jesus and in one simple act of service, He showed us what it meant to be full of love instead of full of self. He gave us a new way to live and a new way to love.

The new command is not love each other _____ it is to love each other _____ (v. 34)

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

The love we’ve been commanded to give is a _____ to the love that we’ve already been _____ (v. 15)

1 John 4:9-10

God’s love became _____ in Jesus. Jesus’ love now becomes flesh _____ (v. 35)

Galatians 5:13-14

It is _____ to love as Christ loved if Christ is not your _____ (v. 32)

Galatians 5:22-23

“SELFLESS”

(John 13:1-15; 31-35)

The ultimate act of love, sacrifice, and humility was Jesus willingly going to the cross to die for our sins. But before He went to the cross, the night before he was arrested, He gave another example of love, sacrifice, and humility when He washed the disciples' feet. All the power in the universe belonged to Jesus and in one simple act of service, He showed us what it meant to be full of love instead of full of self. He gave us a new way to live and a new way to love.

The new command is not love each other better, it is to love each other the way Christ loved us. (v. 34)
1 Corinthians 13:4-7

The love we've been commanded to give is a response to the love that we've already been given. (v. 15)
1 John 4:9-10

God's love became flesh in Jesus. Jesus' love now becomes flesh through us...the church. (v. 35)
Galatians 5:13-14

It is impossible to love as Christ loved if Christ is not your first love. (v. 32)
Galatians 5:22-23
