
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, June 23, 2019

“FOUR BLESSED PERSPECTIVES”

(Psalm 66:1-20)

In any relationship that takes place over years, we develop greater perspective. In Psalm 66, the author declares the blessed perspective of one who walks with the Lord for a lifetime. In Him we find new levels of confidence, hope, and purpose for our past, present, and future.

1. Look back and _____ (Psalm 66:5-6).

2. Look forward and _____ (Psalm 66:4).

3. Look around and _____ (Psalm 66:8-9).

4. Look up and _____ (Psalm 66:13).

❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, June 23, 2019

“FOUR BLESSED PERSPECTIVES”

(Psalm 66:1-20)

1. Look back and thank God (Psalm 66:5-6).

“Come and see the wonders of God; his acts for humanity are awe-inspiring. He turned the sea into dry land, and they crossed the river on foot. There we rejoiced in him” (Psalm 66:5-6, CSB).

2. Look forward and trust God (Psalm 66:4).

3. Look around and serve God (Psalm 66:8-9).

4. Look up and find God (Psalm 66:13).