
❖SERMON NOTES ❖

Sunday, July 21, 2019

“I CHOOSE”
(Psalm 1)

We make choices every day. Whether you realize it or not, you also choose between following God and following your own way every day, multiple times a day. In Psalm 1, God’s word lays out our two choices and the results that each choice brings. What do you choose?

Our choices: (A) _____ or (B) _____

If you choose A...

You don’t _____ like the culture (v. 1).

You don’t _____ like the culture (v. 1).

You don’t _____ to the culture (v. 1).

You are _____ (v. 2).

You _____ and _____ the word of God (v. 2).

You will be connected to a _____
_____ (v. 3).

Your life will produce the _____ (v. 3).

You will live in the knowledge that _____,
even in the dark times of life (v. 6).

If you choose B...

The _____ in choice A (v. 4-5).

Life _____ (v. 6).

❖SERMON NOTES ❖

Sunday, July 21, 2019

“I CHOOSE”

(Psalm 1)

We make choices every day. Whether you realize it or not, you also choose between following God and following your own way every day, multiple times a day. In Psalm 1, God’s word lays out our two choices and the results that each choice brings. What do you choose?

Our choices: (A) Wisdom/Righteousness or (B) Foolishness/Ungodly

If you choose A...

You don’t think like the culture (v. 1).

You don’t behave like the culture (v. 1).

You don’t belong to the culture (v. 1).

You are drawn to the word of God (v. 2).

You fill your mid with and act on the word of God (v. 2).

You will be connected to a continuous source of stability, strength, and peace (v. 3).

Your life will produce the fruit of the spirit (v. 3).

You will live in the knowledge that God is always at work, even in the dark times of life (v. 6).

If you choose B...

The opposite of everything in choice A (v. 4-5).

Life won’t make sense (v. 6).