
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, October 6, 2019

“CHOOSE: YOU OR GOD?”

(1 Samuel 13:14; 16:7)

This morning, we will look at Saul and David. Both were appointed kings over Israel by God, but their hearts led them to make choices that took them in very different directions.

Every _____ leads _____

Our choices reveal _____

1 Samuel 15:12; Acts 13:22

Choosing _____ is choosing to _____

1 Samuel 13:13; 1 Samuel 24:6; 26:9

Choosing to _____ is choosing to live under

1 Samuel 17:45-47; Jeremiah 17:7-8

_____ come with consequences, but they don't have to _____ you

Psalm 51:10-13; 1 John 1:8-9

❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, October 6, 2019

“CHOOSE: YOU OR GOD?”

(1 Samuel 13:14; 16:7)

This morning, we will look at Saul and David. Both were appointed kings over Israel by God, but their hearts led them to make choices that took them in very different directions.

Every choice leads somewhere

Our choices reveal our priorities

1 Samuel 15:12; Acts 13:22

Choosing selfishness is choosing to ignore your God-given purpose

1 Samuel 13:13; 1 Samuel 24:6; 26:9

Choosing to follow God is choosing to live under His strength, blessing, and direction

1 Samuel 17:45-47; Jeremiah 17:7-8

Negative choices come with consequences, but they don't have to disqualify you

Psalm 51:10-13; 1 John 1:8-9