"STUFFED"

(Philippians 2:1-11)

It's Thanksgiving week and that can only mean one thing: we're going to stuff ourselves. Thursday most Americans are going to overload on turkey, dressing and pumpkin pie. And after we wake up from our food coma, we'll go back for more. Stuffing ourselves with food is pretty much how most Americans live their lives...we're busy trying to stuff our lives: stuffing our wallets, stuffing our homes, stuffing our calendars, stuffing our social media. It seems the goal in life is to try to fill our lives with anything and everything that might make us happy. But is being stuffed the way God is calling us to live?

"STUFFED"

(Philippians 2:1-11)

It's Thanksgiving week and that can only mean one thing: we're going to stuff ourselves. Thursday most Americans are going to overload on turkey, dressing and pumpkin pie. And after we wake up from our food coma, we'll go back for more. Stuffing ourselves with food is pretty much how most Americans live their lives...we're busy trying to stuff our lives: stuffing our wallets, stuffing our homes, stuffing our calendars, stuffing our social media. It seems the goal in life is to try to fill our lives with anything and everything that might make us happy. But is being stuffed the way God is calling us to live?

Key Question:

How do you see yourself...as a funnel or a fence?

What does "funnel living" look like?

Concern for others $\underline{\mathbf{goes\ before}}$ a concern for self

Romans 12:10

A wide view of life that makes room for others

1 John 3:17

An attitude that mirrors the attitude of Jesus...empty yourself

1 John 2:6; Luke 9:23-25

Less demanding and more pointing people to Christ

Colossians 3:12; Matthew 5:16
